The Many Faces at HHS Equal

The first week of school was eventful due to the roar of Hurricane Fran. Weather predictions were exceedingly accurate — the storm hit Topsail Island, North Carolina and quickly blew inland, hitting Hopewell around 3 a.m. Many students woke to a school closing announcement that Friday morning (September 6). Local damage included the temporary closing of the Route 10 bridge, falling trees that destroyed power lines, and the flooding at the Hopewell Yacht Club (pictured). Despite the rough start, the seniors and underclassmen quickly returned to the school routine.

CLASSIC STUDENT LIFE

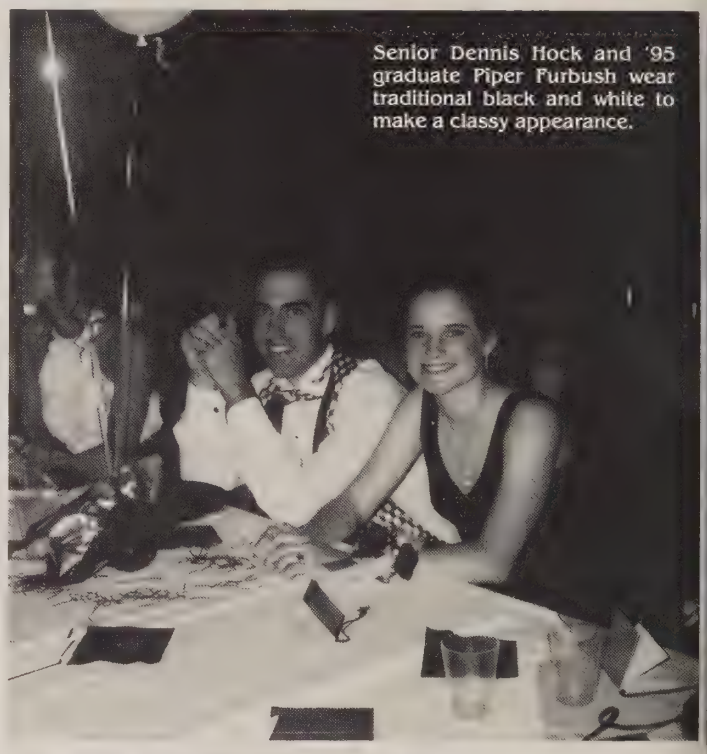

Classic Formality Adds Flair

May 31, 1996 — it was a night that no one attending the Junior-Senior Prom would soon forget. The "plain Janes" and "average Joes" magically changed into glamorous and glitzy for the occasion. After a Friday afternoon of hair crises and dressing snafus, the moment had suddenly arrived. Cars lined up outside the Fort Lee Officers' Club, filled with excited prom-goers awaiting the event which would be remembered as "The Times We Shared."

The seniors felt that this event was an outstanding way to close out their final year of high school. Dancing and partying the night away made the senior class temporarily forget that they would soon go out and face the world . . . The Prom functioned in helping the seniors remember friendships that had, by now, grown into strong relationships over the years.

When the music ended, the festivities moved to the school gymnasium for the remainder of the evening. The Mardi Gras theme of the After-Prom Party engineered a festive mood. Tired, yet eager prom survivors were re-energized by the multi-colored streamers, balloons, and banners. Students played games such as Twister and Black Jack. Over one hundred prizes were given away in contests, such as "Money Grab" and "Putting for Money." Craft sessions were also popular. Mardi Gras-style masks were created with feathers and glitter. Attendees were very appreciative of the organizational efforts made by community groups, parents and faculty. Overall, the night was truly a masterpiece in itself.

Home, Sweet Home

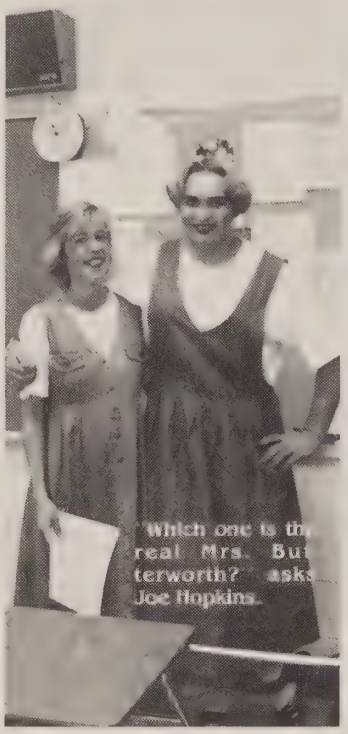

Devils Defeat Archrival PG in Overtime

Homecoming began with a week filled with spirit. On Monday students and faculty enjoyed showing off their extraordinary hats. Tuesday was Sixties/Seventies Day, a time to remember the "old days." Jennifer Ellis remarked that this was her favorite day because "that's the time period in which I want to live." Students returned to school at 5:00 p.m. to watch the classic powder-puff football game and attend the 6:00 p.m. bonfire. The excitement continued on Wednesday with MisMatch Day. On Thursday it was time for students to "drag" out their outfits for Gender-Bender Day. Friday's Spirit Day brought out loyal Blue Devil fans' imagination, as hairstyles and clothing incorporated blue and gold. The pep rally brought excitement to a fever pitch, but football fanatics had to wait until Saturday night, as Friday's parade and game were rained out.

The highlight of the week was the thrilling overtime victory on a cold Saturday evening. Hopewell inched ahead, then Prince George, then Hopewell, and so on — keeping fans on both sides on the edge of their seats. Hopewell held Prince George after the overtime period started and then quickly scored to win the game.

Members of the Beta Club hurriedly counting money and assembling the Spirit Link chains for the afternoon's pep rally are Mike Hardison, Kathryn Slagle, Jessica Saunders, Lisa Hedgepeth, and Ashley Powell.

Standing proud to represent the best of Gender Bender Day are Willie Ellis, Al Vonetes, Brad Flynn, Jose Rodriguez, Preston Wells, Mike Hardison, and Mercer Taylor. Staring in amused disbelief are Lamar Giles, Marcus Bennett, Jason Klingman, and Justin Hios.

During halftime, senior Homecoming Court members and their escorts were introduced: Semique Waller (Derrick Waller), Homecoming King Lamar Giles (Mrs. Clem Williams), Homecoming Queen Kitty Allen (Mr. Tom Allen), Keisha Wyche (Bubba Wyche), Jason Klingman (Mrs. Ellen Klingman), and Randy Kern (Rhonda Kern).

"I was very surprised to be chosen as (Homecoming) King. I am very proud to represent my school in such a capacity."
— Lamar Giles

Rushing through the traditional paper welcoming banner are the ready-to-play Blue Devils. Leading the pack is quarterback Russell Jones.

Running back Chris Morse drags two Prince George defenders up the field for a crucial first down. Rushing to his side are #12 Rashad Baker, #72 Josh Meador and #78 Jason Taylor.

Miss HHS

Imagine! was the theme of the Miss HHS Pageant on March 30, 1996. After weeks of selling sponsorships, selecting dresses and shoes, and practicing "the walk," the moment finally arrived. Contestants were judged on poise, smile, and personality. After the "Top Twelve" contestants were named, each answered the question, "If you had one million dollars to give away, to whom would you give it, and why?" Christina Trickey answered that she would give the money to the Make-a-Wish Foundation so that sick children would be able to enjoy their final moments in this world. Her remarks apparently impressed the judges because Christina was crowned the winner a few moments later.

The pageant functions to unify the junior class girls as no other event does. Marcie Knight remarked that she was thrilled to "see all of her classmates joined together as a team." Nikki McCaffrey added that the "true support we had from our class was amazing." When Christa Grammar was asked what she had gained from the pageant, she replied, "Confidence in myself . . . being in front of all those people was scary, but I was glad I did it."

Good luck to all future contestants.

— Sabrina Kessinger

Finally the moment has arrived: number 40, Crystal Cave, congratulates winner Christina Trickey.

Classic Fun for All Ages

Fun Day is an annual event enjoyed by all. Popular activities in the courtyard included a teacher dunking booth, bootscooting, bodypainting, as well as club booths. Clay Bennett and Lisa Holt were among the willing faculty members who volunteered for the dunking booth. Head Secretary Bonnie Blevins volunteered to teach bootscooting to students and faculty. Facepainting was completed by members of the Art Club. The Class of '98 sold snowcones, while the administrators served free hot dogs and soft drinks. Others enjoyed playing soccer, basketball, softball and volleyball.

Inside, students kept cool by watching movies, playing cards, and participating in games such as chess. Overall, Fun Day served as a break from the routine for teachers and students.

A Time to Reflect

Graduation is a time when members of the senior class reflect on their high school years and dream of future accomplishments. The night of June 16, 1996 was truly an exciting night. After speeches and special musical presentations, it was time for the students to receive their diplomas — a moment that everyone had eagerly anticipated. As each name was called, a nervous and exhilarated graduate stepped forward to cross the threshold through doors which opened up to the many paths life would present. It was a night for the graduates, their parents, family and friends to cry and realize that their children had grown up. Moreover, it was also a chance for the happy graduates to spend the evening with their friends as high school students one last time.

— Jane Rayner

A special presentation was made by Class of '96 Officers Sandy Mueller, Shanna Story, A. J. Jamison and Yolando Mabry. The poem was titled "Friends," and its message reflects the strong bond formed by members of this senior class:

Packing up the dreams God planted in the fertile soil of Youth,
Can't believe the hopes He granted means a chapter in our lives is through.
But we'll keep you close as always.
It won't ever seem you're gone,
'cause our hearts in big and small ways
will keep the love that keeps us strong.

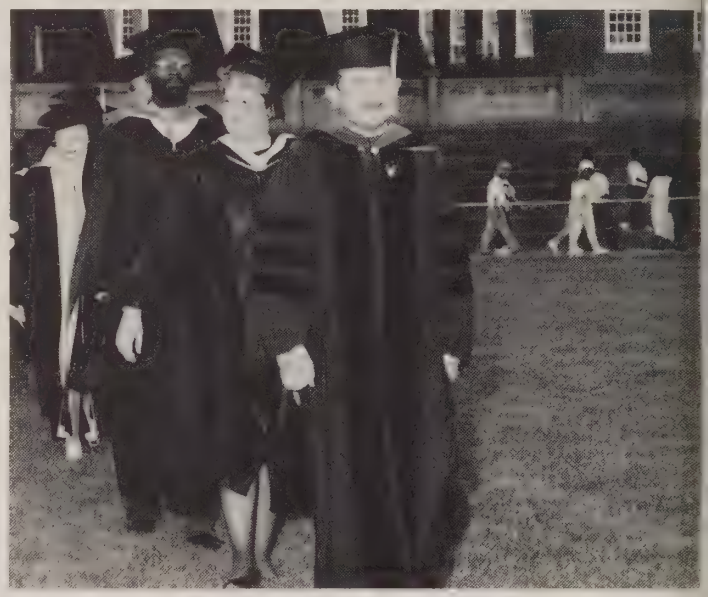

Friends are friends forever
A friend will never say "Never,"
'Cause the welcome will not end.

'Though it's hard to let you go,
in the Father's hands we know
That a lifetime's not too hard to live as Friends.

Valedictorian Wade Nye leads the Class of '96 onto Memer Field.

Heading the commencement line are Superintendent David Stuckwisch; Principal Gayle Keith; Assistant Principals Royce Hart, John Denzler, and Becky Slagle; and Assistant Superintendent Jane McCullen.

A Classic Rite of Passage

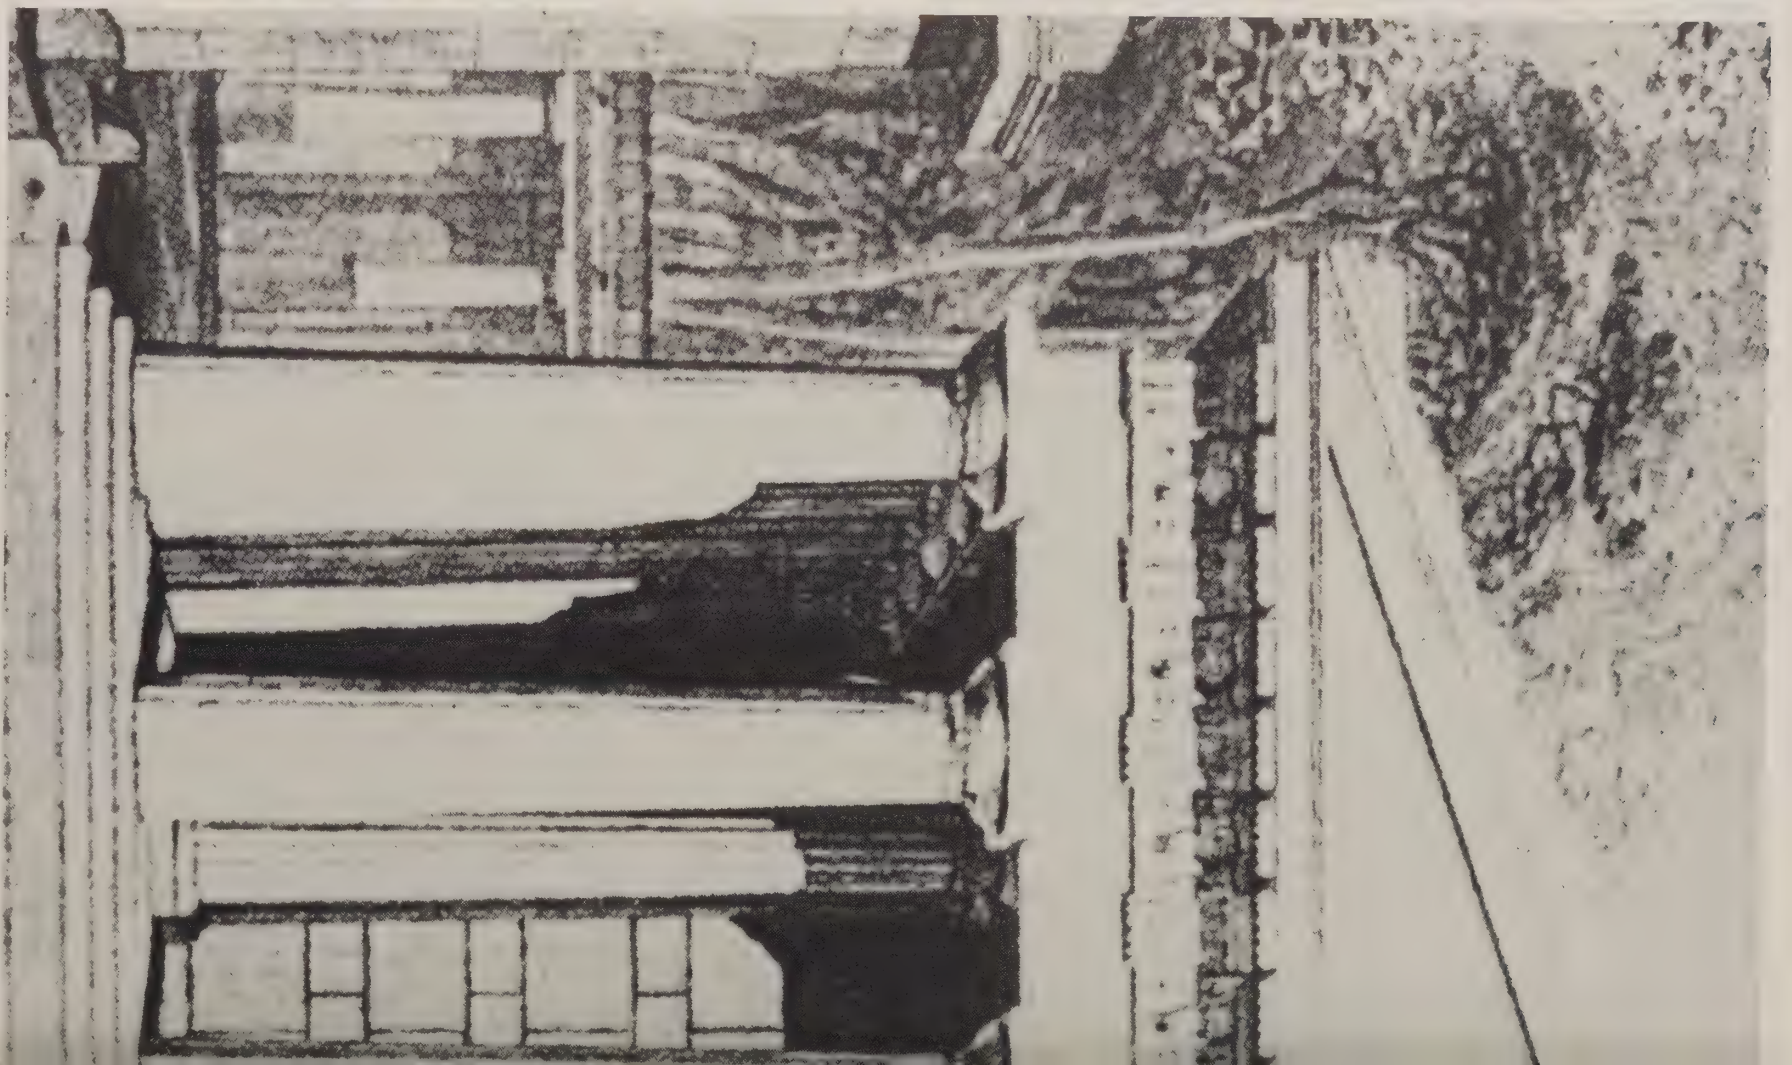

Anxiously anticipating the awarding of diplomas are Carolyn Bowman, Derrell Bowman, Hilary Aderholt, Brian Almarode, Mary Amidei, and Katie Anderson.

Earning high academic achievement for the Class of '96 are Valedictorian Wade Nye, Salutatorian Marshall Minor, Alison Getty, Napoleon Roux, Nicky Breeding, Jeremy Dodd, Dennis Hock, Sandy Whitesides, and John Devers.

Seniors in Waiting

Many people say that your junior year is one of the most exciting years of your high school life, partly because of the anticipation of becoming a senior. This year the juniors sponsored the Junior-Senior prom, received their class rings and finally became upperclassmen. This year has also been a time that the juniors started thinking about seriously preparing for their future, which includes choosing colleges and determining careers. — Jane Rayner

Second in Line But Never Second Best

Everyone's sophomore year is filled with excitement, and this one was no exception. During Homecoming Week, the sophomores placed third in the Spirit Link Contest, yet they won the Spirit Stick at the Homecoming Pep Rally. This victory over the senior class was quite an accomplishment.

Another milestone of one's sophomore year is learning proper driving methods and enrolling in driver's education. A combination of book learning and practical experience is necessary for obtaining a license. Moreover, students quickly learn to develop responsibility behind the wheel.

A third major event of the sophomore year is designing and ordering class rings. By doing so, tenth-graders begin to feel that the future (and graduation) is not that far away. — Nikki Jackson

New Kids on the Block

The Class of 2000 has finally arrived. After a day or two of meeting new teachers, navigating crowded hallways and getting lost, many freshmen felt that they would probably never become acclimated to their new environment. However, the unsure feelings soon vanished as pep rallies and other activities made the ninth graders an enthusiastic and integral part of HHS.

For a first pep rally, the Class of 2000 demonstrates a tremendous response.

Hitting 'Em Hard

The Varsity Football team had an amazing year. This team had a very well-balanced offense and defense. One of the most memorable games was the Homecoming game of October 16 where, for the second year in a row, we annihilated the Royals of Prince George 19-13 in overtime. Our team finished in second place in Central District competition with a record of 4-2 and an overall record of 6-5. Team members advanced to the Central Regional game, but they were overcome by local powerhouse Patrick Henry, which ended up in the State Finals game. Hopewell can be very proud of the football squad who fought hard and real pulled together — congra ulations on an outstandi season.

A New Breed of JV Football,

The JV team trains for making the jump to the "big time" varsity squad. During the season, the players attempted to give each game their best. Quarterback/strong safety Brock Parker said that the team continued to improve throughout the season. When Coach Simon was asked which team was Hopewell's strongest opponent, he did not hesitate to reply, "Thomas Dale. We ended up losing by a couple of touchdowns, but the team performed well, nevertheless."

Dribble, pass ... score, that seemed to be a habit for the Varsity Field Hockey team. By triumphing in twelve of their games and only losing four, the Lady Devils definitely showed what it takes to be winners. Coach Jane Carlson mentioned that they had a very well-balanced team and many offensive players contributed to scoring. Sophomore newcomer Andi Popadopoulos said that the overall experience of playing on varsity was "just great." Other players, including Jennifer Ellis and Samantha Jenkins, noted how they appreciated the support from the HHS Cheerleaders and all of the fans. The team gained runner-up status in both the district standings and the Central District Tournament. Winning both those games placed them in the Regional Tournament, where they eventually placed third. Overall, the team had a fantastic year, because of their hard work, practice and effort.

JV Follows Varsity with

The JV and Varsity Field Hockey teams had an outstanding year, finishing with excellent scores for 1996. The JV team finished the season 3-4-3. Fantastic moments were remembered by several players, who were guided by MVP Captain Lori Collins. She remarked that "the beginning of the season was hard because we had many new players. As the season continued, we became stronger, working together." Lori had expert help from offensive players Crystine Baynard and Co-Captain Sara Ritter, all of whom mentioned that the tie games could have been winners — maybe next year.

Pumping Up the Crowd

Cheerleading is the only sport that lasts all three seasons. Cheerleaders spend many long and hard hours practicing. This year HHS cheerleaders' hard work has definitely paid off. Under the direction of a new coach, Theresa Parker, they attended a national competition in Myrtle Beach. They placed in competitions at Petersburg High School and in Springfield, VA. They took time out of their busy schedules to decorate HHS with motivational banners. They also decorated football players' lockers for Homecoming. Most cheerleaders agree that all the hard work was worth it.

Serving Up Success

The Boy's Tennis team fought hard to improve their record this year. However with five rookies out of the six man starting lineup, inexperience resulted in a 1-11 record. Despite the difficult season, there were many shining moments enjoyed by the netters, including John Wiseman and Billy Pollard's performance in the Central District Tournament. The Wiseman-Pollard team split sets with the tough Prince George doubles team. John Wiseman went on to advance to the quarter finals in singles. Wiseman and Pollard's district play also stood out, ending with a record of 4-8. The other members showed consistent improvement, and hope to improve their record next season with the added experience. With all players returning next year, the upcoming season promises to be a winning one.

This year was a rebuilding one for the Girls' Tennis team. Although many players won individual matches, the overall scores did not quite total enough to win as a team. With more hard work, they hope to improve scores and have a better season next year. The coach, Mrs. Smith, remarked, "No matter how many matches we have lost, I am still proud of my girls' effort." Coach Smith also thanked everyone for their support of the team.

Driving For Victory

The Hopewell Golf Team held their own against tough opponents this past season. With six wins, six losses, and two ties they ended with a .500 record. Throughout the season they had many highlights. "I was proud to be a medalist a few times this season," said Donnie Barber. "I worked really hard and practiced every day, even weekends, to accomplish my goals," says Chris Myers. Chad Casey (3) and Chris Ellis (6) qualified for the Central Regional Tournament. Not only do these putters play for Hopewell High, most find time to fit golf into their leisure time also. Team members really seem to like the sport and will continue to play in the future.

What A Hit!

The H.H.S. Varsity Baseball team had an outstanding season this year, with an overall record of ten wins and nine losses. They definitely showed the true advantage of teamwork. Because the district record was 7-5, they proceeded on to the Central District Tournament. They lost in the first round to the regular season champs and eventual tournament winners, Thomas Dale, 2-1. This game was a hard-fought loss. "They never gave up — they had faith in each other, and they never lost hope," say the team members. Perseverance and positive attitudes are some of the best qualities shared by this team.

Batter Up!

The J.V. team had a successful year. All of the team members worked very hard. This team had a mix of older players and younger players. The players that stood out the most in games were Pitcher/First Baseman Kevin Scott-Spiers, Center Fielder Dwayne McDowell, and Pitcher/Shortstop Steven Shurm. When asked about the most exciting thing that occurred during the season, Jason Amos said "leaving school early and getting to go to different places!" He also said that their strongest opponents were Thomas Dale and Manchester because each team was equally talented. They are hoping that they will be able to take their success from their J.V. season and go on to the varsity team.

You Can't Catch Us

Through all the bad times and the good times, Outdoor Track, both boys and girls, were united together. To be "on track" one must make many sacrifices. "One has to work hard, stay dedicated, and stay committed. Track members want to be on the team and have to enjoy it," says Summer Shannon. The athletes really seem to enjoy the competition although one can not always be victorious. "Though our team was small, we were still able to accomplish more than a few victories because of the help of Coach West and exceptional athletes," says Jared Dunn. Although the team was laden with seniors, it will not be surprising to view new talent during the next season.

On Your Mark

The Boys' Cross Country team ended with an even record this year, relying on their strong senior presence. The team worked hard this year, as always, running an average of 30 miles a week in practice. This level of conditioning is needed if they are going to do well in the meets, where they must complete a 5-kilometer run and compete against the tough teams in this district. Next year the team will be losing its senior force so the younger players must return with more experience and recruit members.

The Roaring Baby Blues

After a slow start, the Ninth-Grade Basketball squad won its last seven of eight games to end the season with an 11-4 record, which is exemplary for such a young group. Even more remarkable was the average number of game points scored during that streak (81), which is unusual for a ninth-grade team. During this time Hopewell avenged earlier double-digit defeats by Varina and Meadowbrook, a feat that indicated an increase in team growth and confidence. When asked for individual highlights, Coach Simon commented that "each individual contributed something special that enabled the team to share the success we attained." Loyal Blue Devil fans will likely experience more excitement as this squad approaches varsity status.

Two in a Row: Repeat of

At the beginning of the '97 season, the Richmond Times-Dispatch ranked the Devils #5 among AAA schools in the region. With an overall record of 21-3, Hopewell lived up to the preseason hype.

The motto, "It's not the size of the Devil in the fight, but the fight in the Devil" certainly applied to this year's team. With the exit of graduated point guards "Rip" Morse and Vance Johnson, some fans secretly wondered if the team could repeat its Central District championship. Nevertheless, Hopewell not only won the CD title and tournament, but this year is the twenty-first consecutive time that the Blue Devils qualified for Central Regional Tournament competition (where we lost to L. C. Bird 82-78 to end the season).

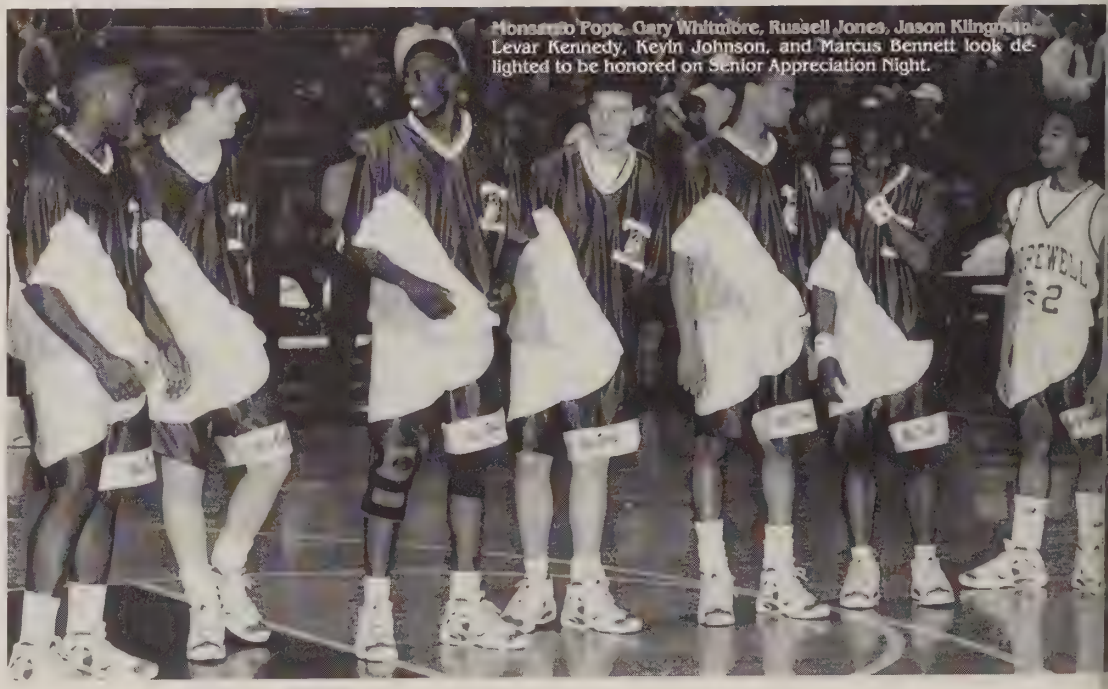

During the Thomas Dale game in late February, Coach Littlepage reached another career milestone, his 600th win. However, his recollection of the best-played game of the season was our overtime victory against Prince George, stating that "it was one of the best games the Blue Devils had played in his 33 years of coaching." The back-and-forth contest ended when Robert Davenport hit two foul shots during the last few seconds to seal the victory. Repeat MVP and regional scoring leader Monsanto Pope perhaps best summed up the season by admitting that "we had to work hard for everything we achieved."

Young, But Getting Better

One outstanding characteristic of the 1996 Girls' Varsity Softball team was youth. The only senior, Alissa Sculthorpe, was on first base duty, where she was backed up by next year's replacement (a sophomore), Lisa Hedgepeth. There were three juniors and five sophomores on the field, including the two top pitchers. Samantha Kelly, a transfer from Princess Anne High in Virginia Beach, handled the pitching duties while Melissa Miller recovered from tendonitis. Miller also plays field hockey and basketball, admitting that "after awhile it takes its toll, mentally and physically," however, she remained upbeat and positive for an improving season, remarking that "we understand each other and have a lot of learning to do, but we will continue to work together." In assessing her team season, Coach Carlson stat that "this is a talented gro that just needs to develo more confidence. We had winning season last year as JV team (the first in seve years) and we hope to repe that history again."

Swinging Hard

This year the JV Girls Softball team had a hard fought year. The team showed a great amount of sportsmanship. Members remained positive and always carried their heads high and kept on swinging. The team tried not to focus on just winning — they wanted to improve their skills as well. The team strived to follow in the varsity girls' footsteps, hoping that next year they too would earn the title of 'varsity.' The team came out with a district record of 3-7 and a overall record of 3-13.

Continuing their winning tradition Hopewell High School wrestlers were victorious at the Central District Championships, a much deserved title. "Over the past three years that I have been wrestling I have had many good times and bad, the only thing that I don't like is the lack of food . . . Nips, Nips, Cheese" says John Buyalos. The team as a whole was very successful, but there were also a couple of outstanding individuals who stood out. District Champions Marshall Crockett, Larry Haynes, Lee Mitchem, and Justin Matthews were all District Champions. Larry Haynes and Marshall Crockett ranked number one in the region. With a record of six wins and zero losses, Hopewell wrestlers have perfected the sport. "Every wrestler, J.V. or Varsity, put forth a great effort every day. The team's championship did not come from one person, it was a group effort," explains Johnathan Pearson. Next year they hope to continue their winning ways with some of last year's wrestlers returning with even more experience.

Above and Beyond

The JV Soccer team finished this year with a record above and beyond their previous seasons. Team members credit this year's success to the athleticism of the team, along with the support of their coach Mr. Breeden. He was described by player Mike Allen as "a positive person, with good strategies, who helped everyone gain experience by letting all members play." The cooperation of the team members also stood out, especially since the team consisted of so many young and inexperienced players, who had to survive by themselves after three of the more experienced players moved up to varsity. Next year the team hopes to continue improving since this young team will return more experienced.

1997

The Hopewell High School Yearbook Staff proudly presents the 72nd edition of the Kaleidoscope. The staff has put many hours into perfecting this year's Kaleidoscope. This year we had all new members to the staff except for Editor Jane Rayner. I would like to thank my staff for their dedication because the yearbook would not be possible without all of you. I would also like to thank our advisor, Ms. Longerbeam who worked very hard this year to help the staff and me learn the tricks of the trade in the yearbook business. Ms. Longerbeam helped push us to make our deadlines. When we would get stressed, she would help us get organized and prepared. We hope that you, the students, faculty, and administration are satisfied with the finished product. Truly the Kaleidoscope is the best way to show that the 1996-1997 school year was a Classic Masterpiece.

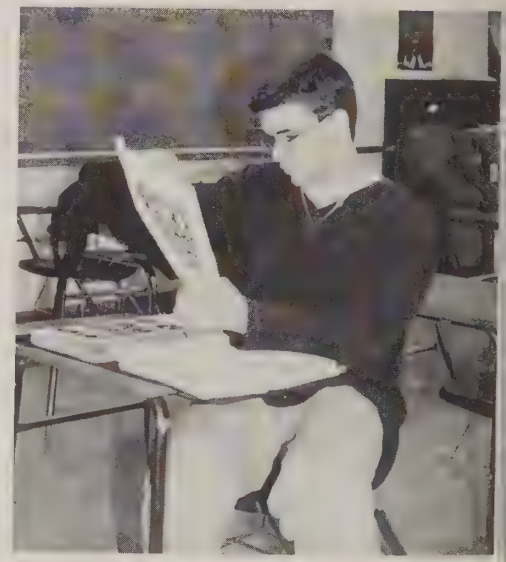

Beth Martin works on preparing the Master Index to be sent to the publishing company.

Monique Jennings sorts through all of the student schedules so she can send out receipts for yearbook sales.

John Wiseman sorts through the student section proofs, checking for spelling errors.

Kaleidoscope Staff

Stephanie Alexander and Nikki Jackson sort through leftover pictures for the end-of-the-year picture sale.

Samantha Baugh is reviewing her story for the J.V. Girls Basketball layout.

Angela Wright and Nikki Jackson go through the student sections, making sure the names match the faces and are spelled correctly.

A Daughter is someone who blesses our lives . . .
helps make our dreams
come true . . .
a source of joy and laughter,
jokes and secrets,
smiles and tears;
treasured moments that grow
dearer with the years.

Goodbye, Class of '97

Thank you to our ad patrons for financial support; Steve Frost, Patti Parker, and students for extra pictures; and all students, staff, parents, and administrators of Hopewell High School for your participation and cooperation.

CONGRATULATIONS C/O "97"

Colophon

Volume number seventy-two of the Hopewell High School Kaleidoscope was printed by Taylor Publishing Company of Dallas, Texas, represented by Dan DeFalco and Kevin Hicks. Our contracted photography company was Lifetouch, represented by Darryl Nelson. The book is composed of one hundred seventy-six pages printed on matte eighty-pound Westvaco enamel paper and cost forty dollars each. The cover and divider pages were designed by Genny Longerbeam.
